Calgary, AB (July 21, 2010) – Internationally acclaimed celebrity photographer Mary Ann Halpin—who has captured stars such as Joni Mitchell, Cybill Shepherd, and Erin Brockovich— today launched her new photography book Fearless Women®, Fearless Wisdom across Canada. The book brings together 40 female entrepreneurs celebrating their courage in discovering their fearlessness through adversity and achieving phenomenal success. Michelle Peavy, the only Canadian represented in the book, joins Halpin to introduce Fearless Women, Fearless Wisdom in a Canadian book tour starting July 26 in Calgary.

“Each woman holds a sword of courage and reveals the stories of how they have transformed their challenges into triumphs,” says Halpin. “The book represents women who have overcome childhood trauma, physical and emotional illness, and near financial devastation. These courageous women are mirrors and examples for us all. Their stories show us that in order to create conscious change within, we must face our fears and walk through them.”

Battling one of life’s greatest fears, Peavy, who was born in Kingston, ON and raised in Alberta, is a stage three cancer survivor. Having learned the toughest lesson of all, she aroused her will, revealed her truth and realized her dreams by choosing to be fearless infinitely. Her alarming story is captured in detail in the media kit found at MichellePeavy.com.

“Many women evade fear by living fast and furiously on the freeway of life. The key question is: how can they overcome their fears?” asks Peavy. “To be fearless is to make a choice to live larger than life, to take a step in spite of the fear. Mary Ann Halpin helps women find their courage to be fearless through the pages of this revolutionary book.”

Halpin and Peavy's Canadian book tour schedule is as follows:

CALGARY, LETHBRIDGE – July 26-28

TORONTO – July 29-August 6

EDMONTON, RED DEER – September 22-27
